VI.) Old Business

a.) Easter Egg Hunt: The Ruby Hall - March 28, 2026. Went very well 11 kids and 15 adults attended and had a great time. The committee discussed possible changes to the weekend date for next year.

b.) Grant Resolution: This has been approved by the township board. Everything submitted. The timeline for the approval is the end of the year.

c.) Ball Diamonds/Soccer Field: The committee discussed how the fields are not charged for the use. Sherry and Cindy discussed some unhappy users of the field that assumed they had rights to the field. The soccer nets are not owned by the township. The fields are first come first service, they have always been. In the future, maybe discuss charging for usage of the fields.

d.) 5-Year Plan: The Community Foundation will pay Kim to do the 5-year plan. Committee is fully supportive of this.

VII. New Business

- a.) Parks: All parks open. Porta Potties to be delivered and set up on April 15, 2026.
- b.) The committee walked the Firefighter park. Items noted for summer projects at this location were: Fresh red paint on play equipment, power wash the play equipment, new plastic timbers to replace the wood timbers, new teeter tauter is needed. Sherry was provided cards by Sarah at the last meeting with vendors for the Fire Truck for firefighter park. Sherry to contact these vendors.
